

2020 Summer

Poetry Contest

*To see the Summer Sky
Is Poetry, though never in a Book it lie –
True Poems flee –
Emily Dickinson, c.1879*

The library is holding a Summer Poetry Contest for the month of June.

The contest is open to ALL students.

One lucky winner will receive a Poetry Mug,
Poetry Journal Notebook, and a $25.00 Amazon Gift Card!

Instructions:

The poem must be original, typed, Times New Roman, 12-point font and double space.
The length is at your discretion and the topic must be summer related. Please attach a title page to the poem with your name, title of poem, phone number and e-mail address.
Please submit all poems to Ms. Jacqueline Simone, Director of Library Services via e-mail to jsimone@mildred-elley.edu no later than June 30th.

The winner will be notified via phone and/or e-mail.

*Good Luck &
Get those creative juices flowing!!*